

ABOUT

Victoria Lynn Jewelry is a premier line of handcrafted pieces brilliantly embellished with the finest array of genuine Swarovski crystals. The exclusive collection illustrates a stunning balance of elegance, class and vibrancy to dazzle the eye of any beholder. When a woman is adorned with Victoria Lynn, she always shines and leaves a little sparkle wherever she goes.

The level of quality intricately poured into each bracelet, earring, necklace and ring is unparalleled. Sheila Hodges, owner and principle artist of Victoria Lynn Jewelry, is the sparkle behind Victoria Lynn. Her masterful eye for color selection, whimsical knack for design and intimate attention to detail have produced a one-of-a-kind collection uniquely set apart with the highest standards of creative excellence.

Sheila's passion as a jewelry artisan rests in the ability to make women look and feel beautiful when gracefully bedecked with eye-catching crystal couture. This inspiration began in 2003 when she opened The Bead Shak in Gulfport, Mississippi — a bead store that carried supplies for local crafters and served as a hub of innovation for Sheila and her team of artisans to create rare pieces for an expanding client base.

In 2011, Sheila transitioned her jewelry design focus to embrace an exquisite line solely devoted to showcasing the radiant characteristics of Swarovski crystals. Victoria Lynn is still proudly based in South Mississippi, but the name is well known beyond state lines.

Sheila and her husband, Joey, have four daughters: Victoria, Charity, Katherine and Olivia. For the last 14 years, the family has built the business together on a reputable foundation of signature craftsmanship, and each member plays a vital role — a generational blessing that makes Sheila sparkle with great joy and gratitude.
